

Shanghai 1814 DRINKS MENU

Whet Your Appetite

1814's Drinks Menu is a fusion of East and West. Delicious cocktails mix Eastern flavours with Western spirit, there is an exceptional selection of sakes, wines chosen to complement Chinese cuisine, celebratory fizz, and a spirits listing that include an extensive choice of gin, tequila and whisky.

Cocktails include one named after Li Bai, considered the god of Chinese poetry, whose work celebrate nature, friendship and the joys of drinking. Among his best known poems is Walking from Drunkenness on a Spring Day. A well-know fable relates that Li drowned when he tried to embrace the moon's reflection in the Yangtze Rive while drunk – rapt with wine and moon.

PLEASE NOTE:

Please inform us of any allergies or intolerances before placing and order food or drink.

Please note that all of our drinks are prepared in an area where cross contamination can occur, therefore we sadly cannot guarantee that allergens will not be present.

Our menu descriptions do not contain all ingredients and we only carry information on the 14 regulated allergens.

A discretionary service charge of 10% will be added to your bill, all of which is distributed to the team.

Thank you so much for your support and cooperation at this time.
